

Pinpoint rebate performance

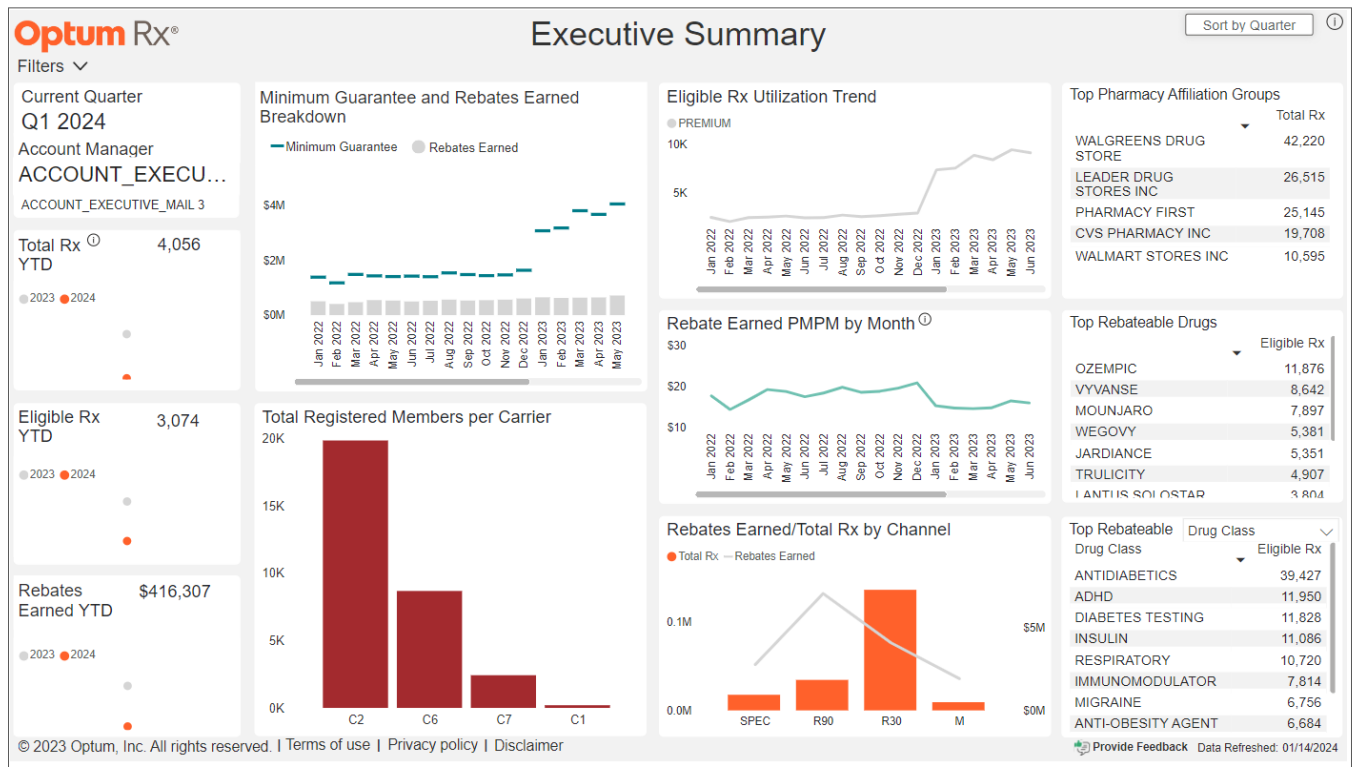

Empowering you with clear, timely data

Manufacturer rebates are a key component of plan sponsors' efforts to manage drug costs. But are those rebates being used as intended? Are they driving members to preferred medications under your plan? Are there opportunities to lower your net cost of drugs? With the Optum Rx Rebate Hub, you can see exactly how rebates are performing.

Rebate Hub provides a single source of truth that provides timely and clear rebate data.

Get a full view

We consistently enhance the rebate dashboards so that you get the clearest view of your rebate performance from multiple angles.

See rebate performance in key areas

Updated weekly within your existing client portal, your Rebate Hub dashboard displays rebate data in clear, easy-to-interpret visuals that show you where you are today, so you can plan for the future. Dig into specific areas for a closer look:

- Executive summary – Get an overview of areas you can explore further, including claims analytics, disbursements, formulary analytics, pharmacy breakdown, drug utilization analytics, and carrier/account/group (CAG) breakdown.
- Claims analytics – Explore rebate usage by claim categories like formulary trends, member utilization, prior authorization trends, claim count per carrier and more.
- CAG breakdown – View rebates by client, population, carrier, account and group.
- Pharmacy breakdown – See how rebates perform within pharmacy categories like minimum guarantee, affiliation group, and the presence of different pharmacy affiliation groups within a given county or state.
- Drug utilization – View drug use by therapeutic class or drug name year over year, and see whether a claim was eligible for rebate.
- Drug utilization / market share – Get a market-share view of the drugs used. You can also filter by therapeutic class, sub-class and drug name.
- Disbursements – Get a quarterly reporting breakdown of your disbursements and track how actuals compare to estimates.
- CAG breakdown and drug utilization forecast – Help manage rebate performance and plan ahead with forecasts for utilization, rebates earned, and eligible drugs.
